

FIFTH GRADE MATH

Students entering fifth grade should be proficient in multiplication and division facts. They should be able to perform two digit multiplication and division problems.

FIFTH GRADE READING

The Landry News by: Andrew Clements

Please answer the questions on the attached sheet. Be ready to discuss the book and turn in the questions.

Name _____

The Landry News
By Andrew Clements

1. List the main characters and write a sentence about each one.

2. How do you feel about Mr. Larson's teaching after the first two chapters?

3. What is your favorite section to read in the newspaper? Explain why.

4. If you were to write an article for The Landry News, what would it be about?

5. What is an editorial?

6. Describe Cara using 10 adjectives.

7. How do you feel about Mr. Larson's teaching at the end of the book?